5. On 3 May, the Artillerie Kaserne on Lindenstrasse was occupied only by a small rear detail. A sentry wore red-bordered black epaulets.

6. On 3 May, the Fliegerhorst Kaserne west of the town was vacated by the troops. A sentry with red-bordered black epaulets stood guard at the guard house. No training activity was noticed. A radio station with one mast about 5 meters high and with anchoring wires in four directions was seen just northwest of the former command post in the billeting area. A small wooden building 2 x 3 meters stood near the mast. Just northwest of the radio station, there was a small ammunition dump about 100 x 200 meters, consisting of 8 to 10 earth bunkers. The dump was surrounded by a barbed-wire fence and guarded by sentries with red-bordered black epaulets.
